

The Basics of Secularism

What is it?

Secularism is the philosophical position that our world and our _____ in it should be understood without the necessity of presupposing God.

That means...

_____ You can still believe in God but it should not impose into _____ as a whole.

So is secularism 'atheism'?

That society, government, and education should be _____ in their basic assumptions.

Secularism involves 2 basic propositions

1. There is a strict separation of _____

2. People of different religions are all _____ before the law

Is neutrality _____ observed?

Where are _____ derived from in a secular society?

_____ antagonism

Human nature _____ decency

Secularism creates 4 main problems

Total Deaths Under Leadership

Joseph Stalin - _____
Mao Zedong - _____
Adolf Hitler - _____

Top 3 Secularist Leaders/Results